

Our 20% Semi-Annual Discount Sale

Closes Saturday Night,
July 29, at 9:30 O'clock

Model Shoe Store
"HOSIERY, TOO!"

MANY UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TREADING BEATS ON BORDER

UNLESS WAR DEPARTMENT RE-LEASES THEM THEY WILL
MISS FALL COURSE

SOME ARE STAR ATHLETES

AUSTIN, July 25.—Nearly 100 students of the University of Texas are members of various military companies along the Texas border, and unless the War Department decides to release them, these young men will be denied the privilege of attending college this fall.

Among these men are some of the

ICE

Corpus Christi Ice Company
Phone 128.
Water and Laguna Sts.

When YOU Build DEMAND
"Southland" Lumber
AND BUILD FOR KEEPS

You want a home that will LAST for years that will HOLD UP, you will be PRIDE OF your town as you live. Not one that will last "TEN DAYS" and in constant need of repairs in a few months. So, why not look into this building proposition like you would any other. Find out something about lumber. Most people only think of home in a life time, so they should give some thought to the materials that goes in their home.

Don't just think "Lumber is Lumber." Demand "Southland Lumber" in YOUR HOME.

Southland Lumber Co.
O. C. ZAVICH, Mgr.
901 Leopard St.
CORPUS CHRISTI
Phone 28.

COTTON CHOPPERS NEEDED

Nueces County farmers Stand in need of industrious Mexican laborers.

One cotton planter searched for 100 men Saturday. He found 6. Yet he was prepared to pay good wages.

Any Mexican who wants work can find it. If he will list his name with The Caller, he will be placed in touch with the farmer who needs him.

The time is short; the need is great. Apply today.

CORPUS CHRISTI SOCIETY...

MISS JEANETTE GUNST, Society Editor. Phone 205.

Social Calendar Today.

Dinner dance at eight o'clock at the Mission Hotel. Aluminum demonstration at Edward Purman's house at four o'clock.

Mrs. Oliver Jones to give a picture show party in the afternoon.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Lee Blanchard of Beaumont is the mother of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones.

Watermelon Social. The watermelon social, which was to have been given Friday evening by the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church was postponed on account of inclement weather to Friday, July twenty-sixth.

Aluminum Demonstration. There will be an aluminum demonstration this afternoon at four o'clock at the Edward Purman's house. An admission fee of 50 cents will be charged and the amount raised will be used for furnishing the aluminum articles.

Members of the First Presbyterians Association and the Second Presbyterians are urged to attend.

South Bluff Gym Club.

The South Bluff Gym Club will have a business meeting Friday at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. A. Avery. At five o'clock in the same place after noon there will be an aluminum demonstration in which the general public is invited.

Men's Social. Wednesday evening the Men's Social Club will have a business meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. E. A. Avery.

The place will be the Hotel Rio Grande.

Those present were Mr. Charles W. Forrest, E. T. Hallard, W. H. Johnson, E. J. Williams, H. C. Edwards, T. J. Nix, H. H. Russell, J. H. Edwards.

Mr. J. J. Nix will conduct the club at the present regular meetings.

Meeting at the Nix's hotel.

Dinner Dance.

The society dinner dance to be given at the Nix's hotel this evening will include a 50 cent entrance charge. Admission tickets will be sold at the door.

Miss Nellie McConahay will sing several numbers.

Reception at Church.

This reception, which was to have been given Monday evening at the Methodist Church, is to be given on Monday evening at the First Presbyterian Church with Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards, who will have charge of the same. Admission will be 50 cents and income from the tickets will go to the church.

Woman's Missions Society.

The Wyoming Missions Society of the Presbyterian Church had a successful afternoon at the church with Misses M. A. Williams and Dorothy McConahay.

Misses J. M. Taylor and Mabel McConahay sang in the program for "The Missions in India."

The Bishop of Wyoming spoke on a subject in the "Ecclesiastical Journal" and Misses Williams and Dorothy McConahay sang in the program.

A delightful vocal concert was given by Miss McConahay.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

A different view however was held by Miss McConahay.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of the American peace conference at Versailles. The announcement was made after an hour's talk with the pressmen of the European papers in that the American delegation had agreed upon a minimum number of seats without giving any details.

AUSTIN, July 25.—An unusual interest manifested itself in the education of the American people in the discussion of